

TO-MORROW —THE— SALE —OF THE— SEASON.

We have gathered here a collection of all that is good in dry goods. Our modern merchandising way isn't satisfied with waiting for trade, but creates it. We have secured many special values in desirable goods that we can afford to price extra low to stimulate early selling. Not an unworthy specimen in the lot. The quantities are limited. By coming early you will have the choice. The following are striking examples:

Ladies' Capes —AND— JACKETS.

A fine Black Beaver double cape, with three rows satin piping, with full sweep, worth $7. Our price $5.
A better quality Black and Blue Beaver double cape, edged with fur, sold elsewhere at $7.50. We will close them out at $5.

An extra quality Black Beaver cape, with satin facing and three rows satin piping around. Price them anywhere and you'll be told $8.50. Our price $6.

A fine quality Plush Cape, trimmed with Thibet fur. Would be cheap for $8. Our price $6.50.

A finer quality Plush Cape, a little larger than the above, trimmed with braid and jet, well worth $12.50. You can buy them from us for $10.

Back Beaver Jackets, ripple back, elegant fit, from $3.50 up. You'll save 25 per cent. by calling before making a purchase elsewhere.

Dress Goods.

500 pieces to select from at prices way below the market value. Overstock compels us to unload, and the ladies who have not gotten their new fall dress will profit by buying now.

BUSINESS IS LIVELY —AT THE— BLANKETS.

Scarce an hour of the business day passes but that some one is buying these good blankets. A price list that covers every purse, and not an unworthy Blanket in the lot. All wool, part wool and cotton, although the last two are in the minority. If we tell you that a certain Blanket is all wool you can rely on it being so. It isn't always so everywhere.

A BIG CUT IN OUR Millinery Department

Notwithstanding our prices for Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats have been cheaper than any other establishment in the city, we will still make a deeper cut on all our Hats. They must go, and the cheapness of the price is bound to make them move. Call and inspect our stock before making your selection.

Gone to Europe.

Prof. H. Z. Kipp, of Allegheny Institute, left last night for Europe, where he will make a special study of modern languages.

Address to Students.

Dr. J. L. Stone will address the students of the National Business College to-morrow morning at 9 o'clock. These addresses are extremely interesting and everybody is invited to attend.

King's Daughters

The Ready Workers' Circle of King's Daughters invite their friends to a tea to be given at the home of their president Mrs. J. G. Bringham, 25 Eighth avenue s. w., this evening from 5 to 10 o'clock.

Successful Entertainment.

The entertainment and festival given by the Ladies' Aid Society of Grace Church was a great success. They took in $105, of which amount $85 was clear profit.

An Oyster Supper.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the United Brethren Church will give an oyster supper on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week at the corner of Park street and Second avenue n. w., for the benefit of the church. All are cordially invited.

Schedule Changed.

No. 4 passenger train from Bristol, which, since the recent change of schedule, has been running an hour late, now is due here at 12:05, and will probably be on time, as the Memphis and Charleston railroad has arranged a better connection.

Miss Steiner Here.

Miss Emma R. Steiner, of New York, who is to direct the juvenile operetta, "Mystic Midgets," to be rendered at the Academy of Music Thanksgiving night under the auspices of St. Agnes' Guild of St. John's Church, arrived in the city yesterday and is registered at the Ponce de Leon.

An Approaching Entertainment.

The Ladies' auxiliary of the Order of Railroad Conductors will serve an oyster and ice cream supper on Thursday and Friday nights, November 21 and 22, at the building on Salem avenue formerly occupied by the Webb Shoe Company. The public is invited.

A Correction.

In the Salem column of Friday's issue a notice was published of a football game to take place between the Roanoke College team of Salem and the National Business College of this city. The Salem correspondent was misinformed, as there is no National Business College team.

Not Harry M. Ward.

The Harry Ward spoken of in connection with the Ernest Avenue cutting scrape on Saturday night is not Harry M. Ward, of the stationary department of the Norfolk and Western office. The young man referred to lives in the northwest part of the city.

To Be Married To-day.

A very quiet wedding will be solemnized this morning at the residence of Mrs. Jno. E. Penn, on Campbell avenue. Only the immediate friends and relatives of the family will be present. Ernest Penn, bookkeeper for R. L. Penn & Co., and Miss Annie, daughter of Mrs. Colonel Penn, are the contracting parties.

St. James Church Benefit.

There will be a charming entertainment given in the shape of a scarf drill by seven beautiful young ladies of St. James M. E. Church at Bohm's hall, on Park street, Thursday and Friday nights of this week. Admission only 10 cents. In connection with this entertainment the Ladies' Aid Society will serve an oyster supper at the band room, also on Park street.

Greene-Memorial Last Night.

Rev. H. H. Kennedy, of Salem, preached an interesting sermon last night from the text, "This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners." The services were well attended and much interest was manifested. Services to-night at 7:30 o'clock.

To Johns Hopkins Hospital.

E. S. Hutchinson, manager of the Lick Branch Colliery, at Mayberry, W. Va., who had his leg broken by being run into by a train on a trestle near the colliery, passed through the city last night on a special car en route to Johns Hopkins Hospital at Baltimore for treatment. He was accompanied by his family and family physician, Dr. Buck.

Christian Endeavor Convention.

The Convention of Christian Endeavorers is close at hand. November 28 will see the arrival in Roanoke of some 150 or 200 determined Christian workers who represent the societies of the S. U. and who will be in session on the 29th and 30th and December 1. The Endeavorers of Roanoke have issued a circular of greeting to every Endeavorer in the state of Virginia and assure all who attend a hearty and cordial welcome. The welcome is not only to our city, but to their homes and places of worship.

There will be a meeting of the city union at St. Mark's Lutheran Church Thursday night at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

Virginia Bankers' Association.

The Virginia Banking Association will meet in the Chamber of Commerce, Norfolk, on November 28 and 29. Quite an interesting programme has been prepared for the occasion. An effort will be made to have the three days of grace on time paper abolished. A full attendance of bankers from throughout the State is expected. The Chesapeake and Ohio and Norfolk and Western railroads will make special transportation rates to delegates. Hon. H. S. Tront, of this city, is president of the association, and S. J. Wallace, president of the City Bank of Richmond, is secretary.

At the First Presbyterian Church.

At the First Presbyterian Church last night Rev. Dr. W. H. Hawes preached an interesting sermon to a good-sized congregation on the subject, "The Way of Salvation Through Propitiation by Christ," from Romans, 3:25. The sermon was a very forcible and powerful one, and a good deal of interest was manifested. The afternoon services will be conducted at 3:30 o'clock each day. Dr. Hawes will preach again to-night at 7:45 o'clock. Everybody is invited to go out and hear this powerful evangelist.

Hostings Court.

In the business court yesterday C. E. Bryan qualified as notary public with J. B. Andrews as surety. The estate of Miss L. May Forbes was committed to the sergeant for administration. In the case of the commonwealth vs. John Lee, charged with stealing brass from the Norfolk and Western, a motion was made to bail him out of jail. Bail was allowed in the sum of $300 provided he could give good security. The following special grand jury has been summoned for the 23d: C. P. Read, S. W. Howerton, G. L. Stevens, A. J. Evans, J. C. Hathaway, G. W. Robertson, Joseph H. Earman, R. J. Roland, W. Deener. The two latter are colored.

Essenic Order Organized.

The Knights of the Ancient Essenic Order organized a senate last night known as Roanoke Senate No. 1156, with sixty-two charter members. The officers elected to serve the first year were: Dr. R. W. Fry, excellent senator; W. P. Dupuy, senior senechal; S. E. Crap, junior senechal; Dr. H. E. Jones, surgeon; Dr. T. Whitelaw Sims and Dr. A. A. Cannaday, deputy surgeons; H. M. Darnall, treasurer; Jas. McFall, secretary; Rev. W. F. Locke, sardos; J. H. Campbell, senior vigilante; O. M. Armes, junior vigilante; J. R. Bryan, warden; Col. S. S. Brooke and Judges John W. Woods and J. A. Dupuy, trustees. Twelve members were elected as counselors.

Second Hand Organs $25.00 to $75.00. A large stock of second hand organs, some good as new, from $25.00 to $75.00. Easy payments; no interest. Hobbie Music Co.

Look out for the belled teams. First-class Peacocks nut or lump coal delivered promptly by W. K. Andrews & Co., 219 Salem avenue.

Mrs. W. B. MEER, who resides at Camptonsville, Cal., says her daughter was for several years troubled at times with severe cramps in the stomach, and would be in such agony that it was necessary to call in a physician. Having read about Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy she concluded to try it. She found that it always gave prompt relief. It was seldom necessary to give the second dose. "It has not only saved us lots of worry and time," she says, "but also doctor bills. It is my opinion that every family should have a bottle of this remedy in the house." For sale by The Chas. Lyle Drug Company.

POLICE COURT YESTERDAY.

Fines Amounted to $65.—Most of it Paid.—Saturday Night's Fight.

In the police court yesterday morning a large docket awaited the disposal of Judge Williams. Minnie Garst and Moses Abdella were fined $10 each for improper conduct; Minnie and a white man were dismissed on the same charge. Mabel Lester paid $5 for the privilege of whipping another woman. Four white men were fined $2.50 each for drunkenness. M. Goldman was fined $10 for running a junk shop without paying the necessary license tax, which his counsel, Judge Brand, appealed to the hustings court. J. H. Lee, charged with receiving and having in his possession stolen brasses, waived an examination and was sent on to the grand jury.

The case against Bus Crawford and S. L. Phelps for fighting was postponed. Owing to the absence of material witnesses the cases against Tom Paine and Sid Purdy for cutting Harry Ward on Earnest avenue, was postponed until 3 o'clock.

At the appointed hour the witnesses were all on hand, and three charges were brought against the men. One of being drunk and disorderly; one for trying to break open Mabel St. Clair's house and cutting Fannie Gibson, and the other and most serious charge of all was the cutting of young Harry Ward in the street in front of Mabel's house.

These men went on the street that night with the avowed intention of cleaning up the avenue. From the evidence it appears that they were refused admittance to Mabel's and they undertook to force their way in, when both of them were struck with a beer bottle in the hands of Mabel St. Clair. It was at this juncture when Mabel and her sister were assaulted, each of them being struck in the face and one had her arm cut with a sharp instrument supposed to be a knife.

Purdy and Payne were both sent on to the grand jury in this case. The former was afterward bailed in the sum of $100. They were each fined $5 for being disorderly. Young Ward was attacked in the street and stated positively that Payne was the man who cut him. Payne was sent on to the grand jury in the case also. He is still locked up, as he failed to give bail.

The total amount of fines assessed yesterday was $65, of which $42.50 was paid in.

AMUSEMENTS.

Academy of Music Two Nights, Wednesday and Thursday, November 20 and 21.

Last night one of the most enjoyable performances was given by Hilroy's Wonders at the City Hall Theatre which has been seen in Suffolk in a long time. The performance opened with feats of second sight by Miss Belmonte. She described, with marvelous accuracy, bank notes, foreign coins, watches and other curious articles handed by the spectators to her assistant. Then she did some difficult lightning calculations, giving a gentleman's age to the second, and worked out an addition on four black boards while blindfolded. Her mind-reading feats, with a committee of citizens, in which she traced out an imaginary murder trial in detail, was also exceedingly interesting.

Mr. Beral gave some illustrations of memory power, which were excellent. In the spirit cabinet Miss Hilroy did some seemingly impossible things, while tied, bound, sealed and sewn with bandages and under guard of a constable. The spirit played tambourines and bells, took off a gentleman's coat and did other laughable feats. The presents elicited praise and admiration. They were all handsome and useful. The capital prize was a large decorated 50-piece tea-set. The show gives its last performance this evening and the announcement was made that a gold watch and a silver dinner set will be the leading prizes. Besides these the regular line of presents will be given away, and everybody will get a present without exception, no one leaving with empty hands.

At the Academy Wednesday and Thursday nights. Prices 15 and 25 cents. Reserved seats 35 cents.

OVERWORK —INDUCED—

Nervous Prostration

Complete Recovery by the Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"Some years ago, as a result of too close attention to business, my health failed. I became weak, nervous, was unable to look after my interests, and manifested all the symptoms of a decline. I took three bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, began to improve at once, and gradually increased my weight from one hundred and twenty-five to two hundred pounds. Since then, I and my family have used this medicine when needed, and we are all in the best of health, a fact which we attribute to Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I believe my children would have been fatherless if I had not been for Ayer's Sarsaparilla, of which preparation I cannot say too much."—H. O. Hixson, Postmaster and Planter, Kinard's, S. C.
